Melbourne Pigeon Society – Conditions of Membership Notes

Ownership and duty of care:

- All pigeons owned by members of the MPS, Inc. must be maintained under sanitary and pleasant conditions, treated humanely at all times and given necessary health care
- Members in residential areas must have due regard to neighbours when allowing their birds to fly from the loft
- Flight time out of the loft should be supervised by the owner.

Ill treatment of pigeons:

- The MPS defines ill treatment of pigeons as neglect, wounding, mutilating, abusing, tormenting and torturing, wanton or malicious beating and / or causing unnecessary pain or suffering
- Neglect can be described as the pigeon being presented in a soiled & generally disheveled condition and or harboring external parasites, or inadequately healed wounds.
- These acts are unacceptable to the MPS.

Health and loft management:

- MPS members must make the health and welfare of their pigeons a priority.
- Poor health can be described as a pigeon having symptoms such as lethargy, breathing difficulties, nasal and eye discharge, pigeon pox lesions and the like.

- Lofts should be dry, regularly cleaned and the birds provided with adequate food, water, grit to ensure their ongoing good health.

I, the Applicant, have read and understood the Notes above, and agree to abide by the Melbourne Pigeon Society Incorporated's Constitution, and Code of Ethics and Conduct.
